hat a splendid spectacle Coronation turned out to be. And the weather
held fair, if a little on the cold side.

Pagentry on a grand scale, it was a pleasure and an honor to both watch and participate. I watched with great enjoyment during the market and sat at the end of the long table with the A&S display, watching our craftspeople and artisans as they discussed and explained their work.

Made me proud to be part of Southron Gaard.

Their Excellencies

Speak....

It may be a while before Southron Gaard hosts another event like July's Midwinter Coronation. But when we do, we hope it will seem as enjoyable, easy and rewarding as this one was. And at least half as fortunate with the weather.

The most common observation we've heard from visitors and locals alike was that the event was of a consistently high standard from beginning to end. This reflects very well on the many deputies involved and on the Barony as a whole, especially those whose diverse skills and talents were showcased throughout.

After a brief hiatus to catch our collective breath, the rest of the year is starting to gather momentum with first St Kessog's Fimbulwinter II and then the Southron Gaard Collegium on the horizon.

These are examples of very different types of events, and are both being stewarded by relative newcomers to the group. We are delighted to see such variety and new energy being manifested, and encourage you to both support these excellent endeavours, and consider your own event ideas for the future.

It's been a while since the Barony has seen a Tavern Revel, a Celtic Games, a Feast of Fools or a Holmgang tourney, and there are any number of other possibilities you might come up with.

Outside of formal events, the rhythm of workshops, combat practice and A&S meetings continues. If you are considering or already involved in the Renaissance Challenge, use these as a springboard to new skills or interests.

If nothing else, you'll meet a few more people who have the potential to inspire and teach you, and there's an excellent chance you'll end up helping others as well.

Bartholomew and Katherine
Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard

*From the stewards of Midwinter
Coronation
to all those who played even a small part in making this wonderful
event happen:*

THANK YOU!

The expectations were remarkably high. Your efforts lived up to them, and more.

From the Seneschal

The Barony of Southron Gaard has a very strong name in the Kingdom of Lochac, a name and reputation made stronger by the absolutely wonderful Midwinter Coronation that your Barony just hosted.

Many people from across the Barony helped in many different aspects of this event, and it is a testament to the quality of people of Southron Gaard. There have been many thank-you's to everyone who assisted in the event, and so I won't repeat them.

However, special mention must be made to the Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard, Bartholomew and Katherine, who were the head stewards and provided most of the inspiration and vision for this grand event. It has not been said enough, but your efforts and dedication touch deeply with the members of your populace.

The week after Coronation the Barony had a presence and display table at the Christchurch Arms and Militaria Show. This went down very well, with many interested members of the public coming up and talking to us. Obviously many of them were very keen to pick up 'real' swords and armour!

A fighting demo was done on both days, and this drew a good response from the crowd. The event organisers were very happy with us and at least two photos of the Barony went into the Christchurch Press. Much thanks to all the people who helped out at the show, and to all the others who provided gear and pieces for the display.

Finally, the Barony is once again in need of officers. Becoming an officer is a great way to give more to the group and help in the running and organisation of things. Details about the relevant officers and how to apply for them can be found later in this edition of FTT. And just remember, you don't need to have had any previous experience to become an officer!

Peregrine Flamsted

Baronial Chatelaine

Position available

The Chatelaine is responsible for the encouragement and empowerment of newcomers in the group. This involves both actively chatting to interested people at musters and other public events, and fielding enquiries about the group from the Southron Gaard website, from which the Chatelaine's email is linked.

The Chatelaine is also responsible for the housing and administration of the Baronial Hire Garb, though this may be delegated to a deputy. This involves loaning hire garb to newcomers and encouraging them to acquire or make their own clothing.

Southron Gaard Renaissance Challenge

Whereas it is the firmly-held view of the Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard that the people of these lands have for long been second-to-none in the Kingdom in the accomplishment of the various arts, crafts, sciences, martial displays and service which combine to build and knit together our shared Dream.

Yet it must be noted that in recent times the Barony, Canton and College have been blessed by many newcomers, some of whom have yet to acquire certain of the skills and attributes possessed by those who have been here longer. And also that certain of the more long-standing inhabitants of the Barony may have become complacent or perhaps somewhat narrow in their focus, and may no longer practice some of their skills with the same aplomb and dexterity as once they did.

Thus it is that Bartholomew and Katherine, Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard, hereby challenge each and every member of the populace of the Barony, Canton and College to join the Renaissance -- not in persona terms, but in the expression of your accomplishments. In our eyes, a Renaissance individual can dance, sing, fight, write, cook, and more, acquitting themselves well in all the Courtly Arts.

Therefore we say to each of you - look not to your previous achievements. Starting from now, and for the space of a twelve-month, set out to build or demonstrate your capabilities in the following areas:

- * The Arts Martial - by contesting at an event in a tournament of heavy fighting, of rapier or of archery, or by stewarding or marshalling the same.
- * The Written Arts - by devising an illumination or calligraphy, or composing a letter suitable for your time and place and entering the same in an arts display or competition.
- * The Performing Arts - by learning and performing period pieces or in a period style at an event thus: four songs, or four dances, or a dramatic piece or story -- or preferably doing all three!
- * The Culinary Arts - preparing and serving at an event a period dish for twenty or more gentles, or a group of period dishes for four or more.
- * A Craft - by making two distinct items of a period nature or purpose, such as garb, accessories, leatherwork, tokens, banner, weapon or armour, and demonstrating them to others by entering them in an arts display or competition.
- * In Service - by stewarding an event or a significant portion of an event, or by undertaking specific service to the Barony or Kingdom.

Take up this challenge, learn new skills or polish old ones, assist others to achieve their Dream. To those who achieve these goals before Baronial Anniversary next will be awarded a special token and great honour, for they will truly be a Renaissance Gentle.

For more information on the Renaissance Challenge, including guidelines on the various activities and tailoring for those who are already somewhat accomplished in certain areas, please refer to:

<http://sg.sca.org.nz/projects/renaissance.htm>

Grand Arts & Sciences Competition

In September of this year there will be a Grand A&S competition. It will comprise several categories, such as :

Novice (for people who have never entered an A&S Competition before)

Open

Children

and possibly a 'fish-out-of-water' category (entering something in an area of A&S you have never attempted before).

There will be various prizes to encourage greater participation.

I encourage you all to start thinking about possible projects, maybe in areas new to you. This will also be a good opportunity for the Renaissance challenge works to be entered and displayed.

The exact date in September is to 15th and 16th.

I will be looking for donations of prizes, preferably raw materials which can be used for A&S projects eg. Braid, fabric, beads, threads, tools etc. This is an excellent chance to prune those overgrown stuff stashes.

Please contact me regarding any donations or questions about the competition.

Check out this link for more details and useful information regarding A&S competitions.

A Heavy Fighter (Tune: A British Tar)

A heavy fighter's a hardy soul
Who thrives on a battle's strife
He must be a masochist to be entering the list
And to choose such a painful life

His limbs will break
And his joints will sprain
His back will ache
And his sinews strain
His skin will sweat
And his blisters grow
And he'll dream of salve and ointment as his bruises glow!

*His limbs will break
And his joints will sprain
His back will ache
And his sinews strain
His skin will sweat
And his blisters grow
And he'll dream of salve and ointment as his bruises glow!*

He joins the fray with an eager step
But ere he can strike a blow
He always must bow down to the one who wears the crown
Then his lady and worthy foe

His breath will pant
And his chest will burn
His ears will ring
And his guts will churn
He'll swelter and cook
In the blazing sun
And he'll wonder why he does this sort of thing for fun!

*His breath will pant
And his chest will burn
His ears will ring
And his guts will churn
He'll swelter and cook
In the blazing sun
And he'll wonder why he does this sort of thing for fun!*

MARSHAL:

Practices have been a bit slow this passed month. Possibly a combination of bad weather, and busy schedules with people getting ready for coronation. Will come out with more details and lists of recommended materials soon.

CAPTAIN OF ARCHERS:

Little to report, it must be said. Archery activities this past month have been curtailed by weather, and clashing events (both mundane & SCA). Am planning to hold some archery-related workshop-type things at Stuff night(s) now that we all have Coronation out of the way.
