December AS XLIX (2014)

Chronic Ramblings

Greetings to you all,

Last month was Golden Flight, which sounds to have been a success. The weather held out for most of it, which considering the weather forecast lately, that is amazing. Thanks to Lord Bjorn and Lady Aveline.

Another event was the Baroness' Hunting Party, which started with the Horse Trek and then the lunch, then the Archery. The distances travelled may have been far but it was a fantastic day, where we learned a bit, had lots of fun and has people wanting to do something like that again. Thanks to Baroness Elenora.

This month is quiet event-wise, but as Canterbury Faire is very close now, it is time to start on the last minute prep.

Word of warning to any who will be submitting anything to me this month, I have an absolute SET IN STONE 24th of December to have everything in by so I can have it out by the 1st of January. If I don't get it by then it won't go in.

YIS,

Eva y Bwa

Their Excellencies Speak

Unto the populace of Southron Gaard, do Oswyn and Isabel Maria send greetings.

This month we have had a table and demo at the Hororata Highland Games, the great Golden Flight event and the Baroness' Hunt. All were very successful and depended on the hard work of a lot of people. We are very grateful for everyone's efforts in the kitchen, setting up tents and halls, cleaning up and packing down, behind the scenes organisation and talking to the public. Not everyone can do this last, anymore than just anyone can set up heavy tents. And talking to the public is a significant part of how the public image of our Society is formed.

We were informed that we had a new cook doing a lunch at Golden Flight. Smaller, relaxed events are a good place to start - cooking for large numbers is intimidating, and doing it at a high profile event can be even more stressful. Well done Glenn! And thanks to Lord Timothy and his team for his feast, and Lord Bjorn, Lady Aveline and their people for their stewarding.

Since Faire is coming up, (and before that, there will be a Royal presence at St. Catherine's), we remind you to write up and send off your recommendations. How do you know who to suggest for something? Jog your memory by looking through photos of events during the last year, flick through FTT, trawl through Canon Lore (<http://lochac.sca.org/canon/>) etc. Then, how do you know what to recommend them for? Once again Canon Lore comes to the rescue - look up the summary of awards, and click Lochac. If that doesn't help, you are able to simply write down what someone did/does that you think is worthy of recognition and Their Majesties will determine which award fits best. Could you please also cc us in on these, so we can check in advance to make sure there is no doubling up of awards, and we can ensure that any recommendations that might have otherwise gone astray, make their way to the Crown.

Yours In service

Oswyn and Isabel Maria

Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard

Seneschal's Comments

Greetings all,

I'll keep this one fairly short and sweet. Thank you to Lady Aveline and Lord Bjorn for running Golden Flight. It was, once again, a fun event and the theme of the Chinese invasion of Japan was well planned and received. I'd like to congratulate everyone that put special effort into embracing the theme and thank Lady Aveline in particular for inviting the Christchurch Kyodo Club to demonstrate their art to us. It was an interesting look into how others approach archery. Also thanks to Lord Timothy for cooking the feast and to all of those that spent many hours in the kitchen during the event.

Hot on the heels of Golden Flight was the Baroness's Hunt, held just this last weekend. Baroness Elenora has once again stewarded a very well thought-out and very enjoyable event. It's not every event where one finds moments that they can truly envision themselves back in period, but the simple act of sitting atop a horse, meandering through the countryside, provided one of those moments for me. I heartily recommend trying this out at some point and there was talk of looking into organising something similar at Canterbury Faire.

The picnic and archery were also fine diversions, and the quiz was a great way of stretching the brain and learning a few new things.

We have a few weeks break while I'm sure most of us prepare for Christmas and Canterbury Faire. We have over 220 people booked for the event so far, including many children, well exceeding the last couple of years. If the trend continues it may well be a record turnout.

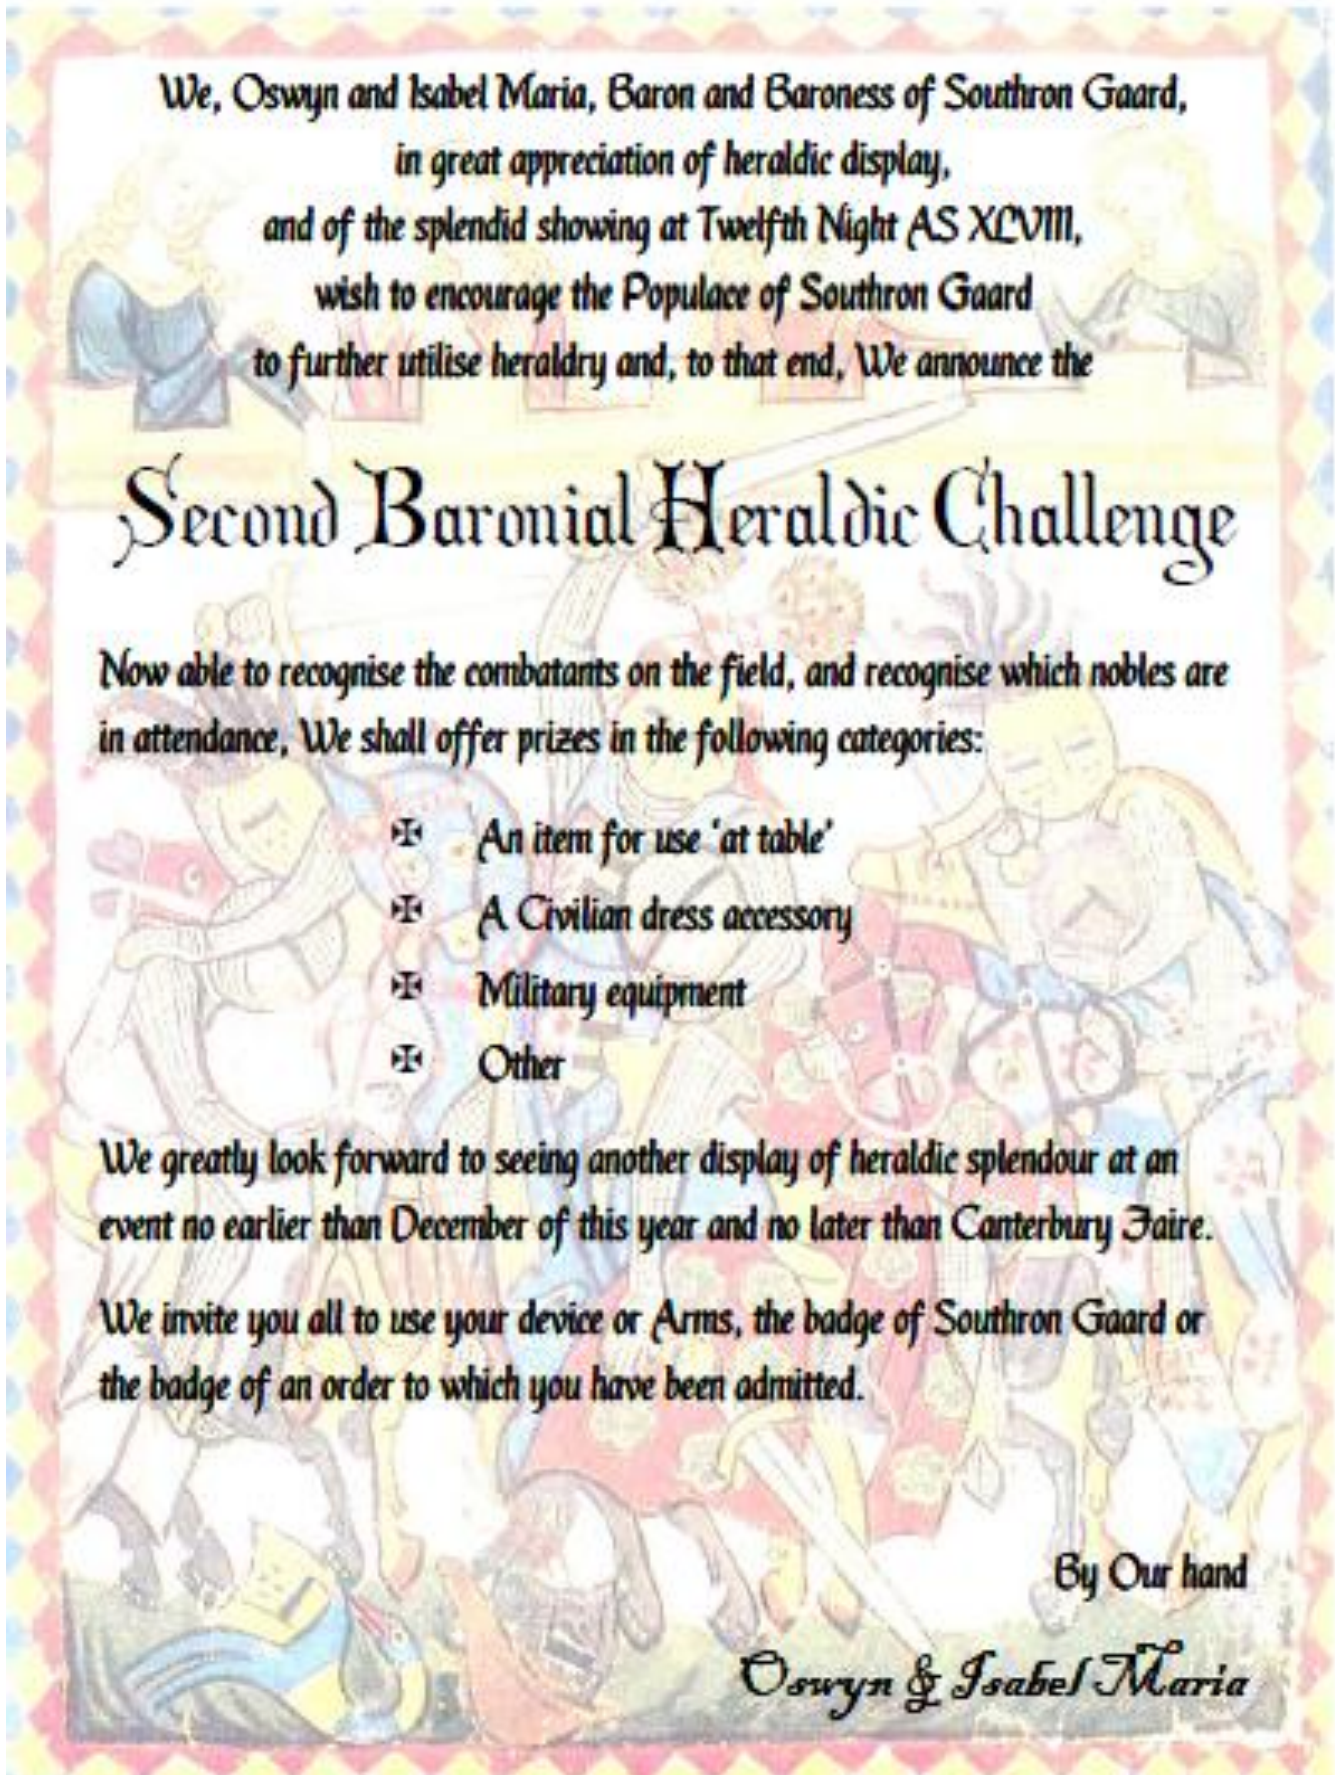

Lastly, many thanks to Lady Lucia who will be stepping down as our herald soon. A replacement has been found and the usual announcements will be made shortly.

Regards.

THL Richard d'Allier

Canterbury Faire 2015

"Revenge of the Dauphin"

The nobility of France is hereby summoned to arms and is ordered to assemble at Reuen, wherefrom we will harry and assault the forces of the presumptuous brigand, Henry V of England until they are crushed beneath our sturdy horses' hooves or lay down their arms and surrender to the justice of our puissant lord, Louis, Dauphin of France.

All nobles should provide men, weapons, armour and provisions for a campaign not less than 3 months in duration, from August 1415 to October 1415, during which time we will assault the English forces from Harfleur to Agincourt, after which we expect Henry to be enjoying the accommodations of the Bastille.

Etiquette of Camping

The etiquette of camping in the SCA is one of those delicate topics that can cause offence when raised and absolutely ruin an event when ignored. Generally it is simply a matter of common sense and remembering the ideals of chivalry and courtesy while going about your business. The following Golden Rules of SCA Camping Etiquette are followed throughout the Known World.

1. Never enter a tent or encampment uninvited.

While onsite a person's tent, bunkroom or encampment is their home. Don't wander through on your way elsewhere and use only the designated entrances. Simply call "hello the camp" (or knock or ring the bell) to establish if anyone is home and receiving visitors. (Remember, there are some things you don't want to walk in on!)

2. Never sit in someone else's chair uninvited.

If you do end up taking someone's seat, always vacate it when the owner returns. They have lugged this comfort to site so don't deny them the use of it. This is especially true of fighters. (Also, they are heavy, smelly and have limited vision if they haven't taken their helm off. Stay seated at your peril.)

3. Tents are only made of canvas.

Always remember that tents do not muffle noise and private discussions can be heard clearly for some distance. In a similar vein, keep your noise down in 'residential' areas. (Also remember that tents can conspire with lighting to make you the unwitting star of an entertaining shadow play for your neighbours.)

4. Always leave space between tents.

While this is primarily a fire safety issue, it is also one of privacy—for you and for them. (We refer you to rule #3, and the concept of things you don't want to know.)

5. Don't block other campers.

Avoid setting up between an encampment (or tent) and an arterial route without the agreement of the established campers. (Nothing wrecks a night faster than someone tripping over your ropes and falling through your tent as they sleepily make their way to the loo.)

6. Keep the 'mundanities' to a minimum.

For example, hide your camera when it's not in use, keep your laptop in your tent, turn your cell phone off (if you can) and put your sunglasses away after dark.

7. Be kind with lighting

Avoid flashing your torch in people's faces and remember that one seriously bright lamp can wreck the ambience of several encampments. Limit their use to set up/take down and inside tents if possible. (Don't forget rule #3 if you choose to use them. Trust me.)

8. Meal times are sacred.

It may often seem like meal times are the only times that stewards and officers can be tracked down, but unless it is an emergency, allow them to eat in peace. It may be the only time-off they get all day. (Also, a 20 minute delay is usually preferable to a frazzled officer with low blood-sugar.)

9. Pick up after yourself.

Not only will other attendees appreciate not falling over your stuff during the event but this is by far the best way to keep track of your belongings. (Nothing is more annoying than wandering around the whole site looking for some small and obscure (but vitally important) do-dah just before fighting begins.)

10. Leave the site tidier than you found it.

This is an SCA tradition, and one we take seriously. Once you have packed up your gear, do a grid-search of your encampment picking up all the rubbish before disposing of it properly.

11. No means NO

This really isn't that hard to understand and applies in numerous situations.

these 11 Golden Rules will stand you in good stead anywhere in the Known World.

Of course there are plenty of other guidelines and rules that different groups (baronies, shires, households etc) follow in order to make camping more pleasant, but

Fire Policy

This is the provisional fire policy for Canterbury Faire 2015. If you have any questions about anything fire-related at Canterbury Faire, please contact the fire marshal - Angele Marie de Savigny (Kerry McSaveney) - seraphim@orcon.net.nz. Angele will liaise with the appropriate fire authorities before & during the event. Fire Season: The Waipara Boys Brigade Camp is located within a 1km fire safety margin of Department of Conservation land therefore DOC will decide what Fire Season applies in their areas.

Current Fire Season (as at 7 November 2014): Restricted Predicted Fire Season for Canterbury Faire 2015: Restricted. This is of course weather dependant up to Canterbury Faire.

General: Event rules require each occupied tent to have fire-fighting materials (fire extinguisher or bucket of sand or water) close at hand, regardless of whether there are BBQs, or candles, or campfires being used nearby. The fire extinguisher in your tent may be needed to save someone else's. Bunkroom heaters should not be used to dry clothing, etc.

Barbeques: Gas barbecues, and gas or liquid-fuelled cookers may be used regardless of the Fire Season. Charcoal barbecues must follow the same rules as campfires. Site rules require that barbecues are used in areas that have access to taps, on the concrete pads provided, or similar non-flammable ground cover.

Smoking: Site rules state that smoking is prohibited in all buildings. Do not smoke near doorways. Use appropriate means of extinguishing cigarettes outside, and make sure your cigarette is fully extinguished before disposing of it in an appropriate receptacle. We have had ashtray fires in the past. During a Prohibited fire season please smoke away from vegetation on non-grassed areas such as the road behind the Mangy Mongol.

Candles, Lanterns and Tiki Torches: Site rules state that candles must be enclosed in lanterns, and not left unattended. Gas lanterns are permitted. Tiki torches are prohibited.

Campfires and Braziers: Department of Conservation rules state that campfires, including charcoal barbecues, (and braziers, and forges) must not be lit during a Prohibited Fire Season. If we are fortunate enough to have a Restricted Fire Season, campfires may be lit with the following restrictions:

- The fire must be sited at least three metres away from any tree, other vegetation, or structure (or tent).
- The fire must not be sited under any overhanging vegetation
- Firewood must be stored at least three metres away from the fire
- The ground surface must be cleared of all combustible materials within three metres of the fire
- Fires lit on the ground must have a stone (or concrete, or brick, or earth) surround
- The fire must not be lit when wind or other factors may cause it to escape
- There must be some method of extinguishing the fire close at hand.

Campfires should not be left unattended while burning. Extinguish them fully before going to bed. The fire doesn't have to have someone staring at it constantly to be attended. Ashes & coals must be disposed of carefully when completely cold.

Clay Oven: The clay oven may be used regardless of the Fire Season as it is not an open fire. There must be some method of extinguishing the fire close at hand and the oven should not be left unattended while in use.

Have you written an award recommendation recently?

Too often people who contribute much to the society are overlooked when it comes to recognition of their work. Sometime people assume they already have an award while others do not know that anyone can recommend people for awards.

Please take a few minutes to write a missive to bring the efforts and skills of someone you know to the attention of your local Baron and Baroness, or the King and Queen of Lochac.

Southron Gaard Council Meeting

Wednesday 8th October 2014

PRESENT: Richard (Richard), Elenora (Simone), Elena (Niamh), Agnes (Robin), Ilisabetta (Josie), Agnes (Alan), Isabel Maria (Miriam), Eva (Sarah), Darayavaush (Damon), Lucia (Betty), Cecily (Catherine), Bernard (Richard), Madeline (Laura), Raffé (Shaun)

APOLOGIES: Ginevra (Beth), Kotek (Sam), Oswyn (Carl)

MEETING OPENED: 7:33pm

PREVIOUS MINUTES: Accepted, no objections.

OFFICER REPORTS:

B&B (Oswyn and Isabel Maria): With Webwright, took receipt of the baronial library from Lady Melisande. Thanks to her for her careful stewardship and kindly dropping it off! I will endeavour to catalogue it electronically so we can have an overview of what we've got and not need the box of cards that came with it. Will also try to scan the large collection of photos to make them more accessible to the populace.

Correspondence with the Seneschal and members of the populace re Hororata Highland Games.

Correspondence with members of the populace re buying rapiers.

SENECHAL (Richard): Correspondence: With Oswyn re Hororata Highland Games. With Raffé and Gheleyn re bow. With Mýrún re Wildmoor officer vacancies. With Lucia re deputy herald office. With Isabel Maria re CF 2016/12th Night Coronation. With marshal, chatelaine and reeve re Wildmoor deputies. With Leonhart re informal (ungarbed) event in December. With reeve, Ginevra and Lowrens re switching admin access on online banking. 1 welcome to a new financial member. Sorted out reimbursement for Raffé for previous expenses (helm, WOF, storage purchases). Email from Raffé re suggestion for storage option. Sent out further emails re SG officer vacancies. Received Minutes of Council meeting for Wildmoor.

REEVE (Mahasti): Quarterly Report in progress. Account balances for this past month: $33,100.06 and $3, 027.30. Money in for CF, Golden Flight and Known World Tapestry Project. Money out for Storage, and Hall hire.

HERALD (Lucia): Correspondence with Chronicler re ad for office succession. No expressions of interest received yet. Applications encouraged.

ARTS AND SCIENCES (Agnes): Sept:7th - Brainstorming on market-able crafts, 14th - Tent decoration, 21st- no class arranged, dance and music encouraged. 28th - Sir Philippe's newcomers session Oct: 4th - 6 board chest decoration, 11th - SG banner making and dance.

Correspondence: with Rohesia about the gypsy market, with Philippe about a class for newcomers, with members of the populace about A&S at Faire, with Ginevra about getting the schedule up online.

CHRONICLER (Eva): FtT late but full.

WEBWRIGHT (Ginevra): Nothing new since last month - Mailing lists still being maintained, etc.

CHATELAINE (Philippe): Redwood Scout Hall has several newcomers which I have been educating and helping with hire garb for Golden Flight/CF. Mistress Eleanora helped me sort the hire garb, which is now stored with me (collected all from Quentin the week before). I ran a class last week on basic SCA etiquette and courtesy, which was an open forum discussion and went well. Thanks to those who gave input. Recommended Verun as the Wildmoore deputy, and this has been approved by their Excellencies and Seneschal.

QUARTERMASTER (Raffé): Investigated options for buying new flag poles to replace the old bamboo ones. Will also look into making new ones.

Looking at options for future storage of Baronial gear. With the storage costs of approx $2000 pa, this will add up over time and become quite a large amount to cover from event profits. I have approached a company I know and can get a good 2nd hand 20ft container for $2450 + gst (would usually be $2750 + gst). This is considerably less than this time last year ($3500+). We (Melisande & I) have made an offer on a new property that would have the space to store the container and providing this all goes ahead, we would be happy to store at no charge for as long as the Barony likes. So I would like to ask the Council to debate the merits and see if this is worth doing.

Discussion on the storage question. Concern about distance to Mandeville (associated costs to stewards) and eventual quartermaster succession. Discussed longevity of container, cost recovery, access and environmental effects/conditions in container (ref to results from Lowrens's monitoring of container at CF). Discussed insurance (currently none). Concerns re delicate items and effects of temperature changes – investigate possible additional cladding/shading? Main points – extra distance to travel. Will it be detrimental to our stuff? There are definite cost benefits.

Darayavaush can get 6m 2x2s for flagpoles for free. Asked to get 2 initially but try for 5 if they are available.

CONSTABLE (Bjorn): No report. Requires Successor.

MARSHALL (Elena): Discussion with B&B re Wildmoor deputy. Leonhart Hunt selected and advised. Received first report: Heavy Training continues in Wildmoor each Sunday at 9am. Changed 2nd day from Saturday to Thursday 7pm due to time requirement of the heavy's currently training. 3 Fighters attending each practice and one newcomer attending the Saturday practice also. Training weekend in Chch attended by Leonhart and Elias. Would like to see this happen again at some point. If anyone would know of a retailer of Archery mesh this would be most helpful for Golden flight.

CAPTAIN OF ARCHERS (Currently Vacant): Nothing to report.

CAPTAIN OF RAPIER (Elena): One application recieved.

CHIRURGEON (Kotek): No report received.

EVENT REPORTS:

Past Events:

Fimbulwinter (Gheleyn): No report received, presumably due to new baby. Will chase up. Richard received receipts for food ($101.49) from Josie.

Upcoming Events:

Golden Flight (Mýrún) : Bookings stand thus: 17 x adult 3 days and feast, 1 x child 3 days and feast, 1 x adult 2 days and feast, 2 x adult daytrips + feast. Total 22 people. There remain a large number of people who indicated informally that they will come, but have not actually emailed me to book. Not sure at present if both Baron and Baroness are attending. While those who intend to daytrip and not eat can come and pay on the day, it would be nice if they could drop me a line if possible...if only to help ensure there will be enough event tokens. There will now be a Kyudo demonstration as part of the event.

Baroness's Hunting Party: Ad in FtT. Organisation progressing well. Sourcing archery targets. 9 spaces for riders. Cost for the event is $7 for the picnic lunch, $4 for site fee, so $11 total (+$2 event membership), plus price for horse trek. No requests so far for shuttles. Practical garb encouraged.

Canterbury Faire (Richard): Working through discussions re campsite locations/size. Confirmed price for marquees. Little difference to last year. Sent invitations/ads to all Lochac seneschals. Discussion/emails re booklet content. Request from Bartholomew to use quad-copters for filming at limited times during event. Discussion concluded we should allow it to be tried out. Got heavy-combat reminders (trumpet fanfare) built into bells system (much approval from Council). Working on task list. Finalising required numbers for meal plan and feast. Still need a repast cook and a kitchen manager. Will chase up children's activities planning. Thinking tokens will be a leather cover for the site timetables. Email from Sam re commercial merchants at market: I see no reason to have a problem with that so long as they pay the event fee ($17 for a day + $2 SCANZ Event Membership), have hire garb (talk to Philippe about this) and don't drive their vehicles onto the site. Also, perhaps if they want more than 1 table's space we should probably ask that they bring their own additional tables. (Approved by Council, although concern re competition). Bookings well up on previous years for first price rise. Encouraging but concerning for overall revenue. Lots of kids booked. Discussed trailer hire. Last year Richard paid for trailer and transported Baronial gear (forgot to submit receipt). Permission received to transport personal gear in trailer this year (Barony pays for hire).

Taddea still on the hunt for a T-shirt/bag design. Received email from Rohesia re brewing project.

Baronial Anniverary: No bids yet. Pizza in the park looking more likely...

Coronation/Canterbury Faire 2016 (Isabel Maria): Preliminary plan out, 16th C Italian theme (Paradiso & Purgatorio). Estimate of 255 persons "not unrealistic". Reviewed budgets. Generally split income and expenses 3/8 to Coronation and 5/8 to CF, except where specific activities fit clearly in one or the other. Raw profit then adjusted to give Kingdom minimum of $2k. Noted that if bid for Coronation is unsuccessful it would still be run as CF.

Cecily noted that this is an unusual situation and CF shouldn't normally be approved this far out. Richard and Eleanora disagreed – it would be better if the next CF was bid for before the current one.

Council approved bid (no objections). Isabel Maria to send it through to Kingdom.

GENERAL BUSINESS:

Banner Making: Happening this Sunday.

Award Medallions: Being looked into. Getting quotes. Bernard suggests contact. Isabel Maria to get in touch. Costs of enamelling and artwork are an issue.
