Chronic Ramblings

Greetings to you all,

I hope your December was well, and that the weather cooperated for the majority of you all.

It really is now two weeks away from Canterbury Faire, and it is time to fine-tune the last of your preparations, getting garb out, finding tents, finding a way to pack all of your equipment into the space you have in the best possible way. Remembering everything... Well, we can help with that, there is a list of things that you may want to keep in mind in the Canterbury Faire section, to help you if you get lost or even as a checklist.

Other than that we have our Baronial Heraldic Challenge on for CF, something that could liven up our tournament field quite nicely.

We have a Baronial Anniversary being planned for our pleasure, with some basic details for now, and more coming next month.

There are no minutes for November or December this month, many hopes we have them next month. If I receive them before, I will put a special edition out with them in to catch us up.

Have a wonderful next two weeks and I will see you soon.

YIS,

Eua y Bwa

Their Excellencies Speak

Unto Our well-beloved Populace, do We send warmest greetings.

Once again the New Year sneaks up and we find Our thoughts turning towards Canterbury Faire - the delights it offers (a mere two weeks hence), and the preparations we have yet to begin making despite all the heartfelt plans to avoid last minute stress this time around.

The Honourable Lord Richard, is stewarding this year's Faire, and has chosen an Agincourt theme for the event. We heartily encourage you all to take advantage of this theme to explore a new area of the SCA; be that archery, French cuisine, or extravagant houpelands etc. There are many, many different facets to this pastime of ours, and Canterbury Faire is an ideal opportunity to discover additional areas of interest, particularly as the event attracts so many experienced and skilled people from all over Southron Gaard, the Crescent Isles and wider Lochac. Our Faire is truly a jewel in the crown of Lochac.

And because of that, We felt it was time that Southron Gaard once again take up its responsibility to do its share to support the Kingdom of Lochac by hosting a kingdom event. Their Majesties agreed and We are thus thrilled to officially announce that Lochac's 2016 Twelfth Night Coronation will be held at that years Canterbury Faire.

Once the imminent Agincourt Faire is over, the stewarding team will come to you with more details of the event, not only so that you can make your own preparations, but in order to discuss how the Barony can support you with your preparations. We also anticipate that there will be details of opportunities get involved with and contribute to, if you would like to showcase your talents and the talents of Southron Gaard to the wider Kingdom. Indeed, beyond the needs and opportunities for Southron Gaard, this is an opportunity to ensure that the new King and Queen of Lochac will have an absolutely splendid start to their reign.

Southron Gaard has a proud history of hosting memorable Royal Events in two kingdoms. We look forward to working with you all to add to that history.

In service to Crown and Kingdom and wishing you all a prosperous New Year

Yours In service

Oswyn and Isabel Maria

Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard

Seneschal's Comments

Greetings all,

With Canterbury Faire almost upon us I hope your preparations are mostly going according to plan. Everything seems to be in order for the event itself, and the bookings to date indicate it should be very well-attended, possibly our largest so far. This all bodes well for the Twelfth Night Coronation event in 2016, which (if you haven't heard already) will be combined with Canterbury Faire and the planning is already well underway. I hope everyone attending this year's event will go out of their way to make others from outside our lands feel welcome, so that they carry tales of Southron Gaard's hospitality far and wide and ensure a magnificent turnout to 2016 as well.

Looking ahead to March, we now have stewards for Baronial Anniversary, to be held at St. Peter's Church Hall, Church Corner. Lady Ginevra and Mistress Taddea are planning an exciting event which will include the usual tournaments and celebrations.

Speaking of tournaments and celebrations, it has been a slightly disappointing season recently in terms of the lack of tourneys and revels. While the larger events such as Golden Flight and Fimbulwinter have been great to attend, it's always nice to see a mix of smaller events as well. Once we're past Canterbury Faire I plan to see what we can do to make this happen. Simple picnic events with rapier, archery or heavy tournaments or revels with dancing and games add variety to the event schedule and help to keep things active over the winter months. I know that many of our experienced stewards have plenty of ideas about events they'd like to run but often don't have the time available to do it, so I'd really like others who might have the time and inclination to run an event, to step forward. We can steer you towards those with the ideas and expertise to help you put together an event.

Finally, congratulations to us for topping 100 paid members in the Barony. We've been steadily increasing over the last couple of years and while this may be a reflection of many long-term players taking out or renewing memberships, there are definitely new people coming along as well so that's very encouraging. My thanks to those of you that have welcomed new people to the Society – we are all the richer for it.

Regards.

Etiquette of Camping

The etiquette of camping in the SCA is one of those delicate topics that can cause offence when raised and absolutely ruin an event when ignored. Generally it is simply a matter of common sense and remembering the ideals of chivalry and courtesy while going about your business. The following Golden Rules of SCA Camping Etiquette are followed throughout the Known World.

1. Never enter a tent or encampment uninvited.

While onsite a person's tent, bunkroom or encampment is their home. Don't wander through on your way elsewhere and use only the designated entrances. Simply call "hello the camp" (or knock or ring the bell) to establish if anyone is home and receiving visitors. (Remember, there are some things you don't want to walk in on!)

2. Never sit in someone else's chair uninvited.

If you do end up taking someone's seat, always vacate it when the owner returns. They have lugged this comfort to site so don't deny them the use of it. This is especially true of fighters. (Also, they are heavy, smelly and have limited vision if they haven't taken their helm off. Stay seated at your peril.)

3. Tents are only made of canvas.

Always remember that tents do not muffle noise and private discussions can be heard clearly for some distance. In a similar vein, keep your noise down in 'residential' areas. (Also remember that tents can conspire with lighting to make you the unwitting star of an entertaining shadow play for your neighbours.)

4. Always leave space between tents.

While this is primarily a fire safety issue, it is also one of privacy—for you and for them. (We refer you to rule #3, and the concept of things you don't want to know.)

5. Don't block other campers.

Avoid setting up between an encampment (or tent) and an arterial route without the agreement of the established campers. (Nothing wrecks a night faster than someone tripping over your ropes and falling through your tent as they sleepily make their way to the loo.)

6. Keep the 'mundanities' to a minimum.

For example, hide your camera when it's not in use, keep your laptop in your tent, turn your cell phone off (if you can) and put your sunglasses away after dark.

7. Be kind with lighting

Avoid flashing your torch in people's faces and remember that one seriously bright lamp can wreck the ambience of several encampments. Limit their use to set up/take down and inside tents if possible. (Don't forget rule #3 if you choose to use them. Trust me.)

8. Meal times are sacred.

It may often seem like meal times are the only times that stewards and officers can be tracked down, but unless it is an emergency, allow them to eat in peace. It may be the only time-off they get all day. (Also, a 20 minute delay is usually preferable to a frazzled officer with low blood-sugar.)

9. Pick up after yourself.

Not only will other attendees appreciate not falling over your stuff during the event but this is by far the best way to keep track of your belongings. (Nothing is more annoying than wandering around the whole site looking for some small and obscure (but vitally important) do-dah just before fighting begins.)

10. Leave the site tidier than you found it.

This is an SCA tradition, and one we take seriously. Once you have packed up your gear, do a grid-search of your encampment picking up all the rubbish before disposing of it properly.

11. No means NO

This really isn't that hard to understand and applies in numerous situations.

these 11 Golden Rules will stand you in good stead anywhere in the Known World.

Of course there are plenty of other guidelines and rules that different groups (baronies, shires, households etc) follow in order to make camping more pleasant, but

Fire Policy

This is the provisional fire policy for Canterbury Faire 2015. If you have any questions about anything fire-related at Canterbury Faire, please contact the fire marshal - Angele Marie de Savigny (Kerry McSaveney) - seraphim@orcon.net.nz. Angele will liaise with the appropriate fire authorities before & during the event. Fire Season: The Waipara Boys Brigade Camp is located within a 1km fire safety margin of Department of Conservation land therefore DOC will decide what Fire Season applies in their areas.

Current Fire Season (as at 19 December 2014): Restricted

Predicted Fire Season for Canterbury Faire 2015: Restricted. This is of course weather dependant up to Canterbury Faire.

General: Event rules require each occupied tent to have fire-fighting materials (fire extinguisher or bucket of sand or water) close at hand, regardless of whether there are BBQs, or candles, or campfires being used nearby. The fire extinguisher in your tent may be needed to save someone else's. Bunkroom heaters should not be used to dry clothing, etc.

Barbeques: Gas barbecues, and gas or liquid-fuelled cookers may be used regardless of the Fire Season. Charcoal barbecues must follow the same rules as campfires. Site rules require that barbecues are used in areas that have access to taps, on the concrete pads provided, or similar non-flammable ground cover.

Smoking: Site rules state that smoking is prohibited in all buildings. Do not smoke near doorways. Use appropriate means of extinguishing cigarettes outside, and make sure your cigarette is fully extinguished before disposing of it in an appropriate receptacle. We have had ashtray fires in the past. During a Prohibited fire season please smoke away from vegetation on non-grassed areas such as the road behind the Mangy Mongol.

Candles, Lanterns and Tiki Torches: Site rules state that candles must be enclosed in lanterns, and not left unattended. Gas lanterns are permitted. Tiki torches are prohibited.

Campfires and Braziers: Department of Conservation rules state that campfires, including charcoal barbecues, (and braziers, and forges) must not be lit during a Prohibited Fire Season. If we are fortunate enough to have a Restricted Fire Season, campfires may be lit with the following restrictions:

- The fire must be sited at least three metres away from any tree, other vegetation, or structure (or tent).
- The fire must not be sited under any overhanging vegetation
- Firewood must be stored at least three metres away from the fire
- The ground surface must be cleared of all combustible materials within three metres of the fire
- Fires lit on the ground must have a stone (or concrete, or brick, or earth) surround
- The fire must not be lit when wind or other factors may cause it to escape
- There must be some method of extinguishing the fire close at hand.

Campfires should not be left unattended while burning. Extinguish them fully before going to bed. The fire doesn't have to have someone staring at it constantly to be attended. Ashes & coals must be disposed of carefully when completely cold.

Clay Oven: The clay oven may be used regardless of the Fire Season as it is not an open fire. There must be some method of extinguishing the fire close at hand and the oven should not be left unattended while in use.
