October AS XLIX (2014)

Chronic Ramblings

Greetings to you all,

This month is out late due to a case of mundania. On a more constructive note however, this month is a full edition with two months of council minutes, and some wonderful pictures and an article from Fimbulwinter.

Prices have gone up for Canterbury Faire and is drawing closer, so remember to book if you haven't already.

Practices are continuing to go well with a recent fighters weekend, that taught a lot of information to those who attended.

Daylights Savings has come and with it returns 'Thursday Fighter's Practice. If this interests you, look in the Calendar to find where.

As I can't think of a single thing more in my poor brain-dead state, continue on through the rest of the FTT, and enjoy.

YIS,

Eva y Bwa

Their Excellencies Speak

Unto to Our well-beloved Populace, do Oswyn and Isabel Maria send greetings

This month We would also like to take a moment to express our thanks to all those who work behind the scenes of the SCA. Without your time, effort, and dedication, we (as a society) would not have the range of events, practices, and opportunities that we do.

To that end, We encourage you all to consider those to give up all (or part) of their events and their free time to give us those opportunities. The most obvious are the Officers, Deputies, Event Stewards and Kitchen Crews, but let us not forget the armies of people who help them such as; the menu rollers, venue decorators, those who stay behind to clean sites and dishes, the advisers and the enthusiasts, the last minute helpers, the transport providers, the equipment loaners, the musicians, and the folk who make sure they take a break once in a while. These efforts are just as valid as those of officers or stewards, and are just as valuable to the ongoing enjoyment and growth of the SCA.

Consider also, that because this work is done behind the scenes, it is often unseen, which can easily be interpreted as overlooked. Thus we also encourage you to take note when you see someone working out of sight, or completing a task that is easily missed, and, more than that, to write a recommendation for them!

Their Majesties are always delighted to be told of the efforts and successes of Their populace that deserve recognition. As are We. As anyone is welcome to write award recommendations, We therefore challenge you all to look around and observe what people are up to and to write a recommendation to the Crown before Canter bury Faire.

Yours In service

Seneschal's Comments

Greetings all,

With Spring and Daylight Savings finally here I look forward to the coming months. Golden Flight is the next event on the calendar followed shortly after by the Baronesses' Hunting Party. I'm looking forward to them both and the diverse activities they offer and hope to see as many as possible of you there.

In the last month of so it's been great to see a few newcomers come along to the practices on Sundays. Having everyone come together to a single location to practice the various martial endeavours as well as A&S certainly helps to get more people interested in new things – or at least to come along and share their expertise. It also means that newcomers can see we are an active and engaged group with a broad range of interests that they can share in. That's not to say we weren't before, but it's just a bit harder to see when everything is split up. I'd like to ask everyone to greet any newcomers and make them feel welcome.

Of course, over the next few months my attention is likely to be focussed on Canterbury Faire. Bookings are rolling in and the event promises to be just as popular as ever, with new and interesting activities being planned as well as old favourites being reprised. There are still plenty of jobs that need doing so if you find yourself wondering how you can help out, just drop me a line and I'll be happy to find you something to do. We do need someone to take on the Kitchen Manager job and we also need a Repast cook.

Alternatively, if you think you might be more suited to taking an office, we still have several open that could do with filling, the most pressing of which is the Reeve. It would also be nice to have a new Herald and Constable and the Captain of Archers position remains vacant so if someone is inclined to apply for that, please do. It really is nice to have fresh faces at Council. Applications should be sent to the relevant Kingdom officer, myself and the Baron and Baroness. On that topic, I'd like to thank all of those from Wildmoor who have stepped forward to be officers for their group. While Wildmoor isn't an official group yet, it is right that Baronial Officers should have deputies down there to help them learn the ropes and develop the infrastructure it takes to be a group.

Regards.

Golden Flight The Invasions of Japan

Kublai Khan, grandson of the great Genghis Khan, has conquered China and founded the Yuan Dynasty. Ever hungry to expand his empire, he has sovereignty over Goryeo (Korea) and has turned his sights upon Japan.

The Yuan dynasty invaded Japan twice, each time massively outnumbering the defenders. Japan was saved each time by typhoons, the legendary Divine Winds that proved that Japan was under Heavens protection.

Event Stewards Lord Bjorn Svartsson and Lady Mýrún Jóhansdóttir call you to arms, to choose a side (China/Korea or Japan) and join us at the Rimu Park Scout Camp on Canterbury Show Weekend (Friday 14th to Sunday 16th November 2014) to refight these history making events and decide Japans ultimate fate!

Cherished from Mandate of Heaven, the Great Mongol emperor sends this letter to the King of Japan. The sovereigns of small countries, sharing borders with each other, have for a long time been concerned to communicate with each other and become friendly. Especially since my ancestor governed at heaven's command, innumerable countries from afar disputed our power and slighted our virtue. Goryeo rendered thanks for my ceasefire and for restoring their land and people when I ascended the throne. Our relation is feudatory like a father and son. We think you already know this. Goryeo is my eastern tributary. Japan was allied with Goryeo and sometimes with China since the founding of your country; however, Japan has never dispatched ambassadors since my ascending the throne. It is horrifying to think that the Kingdom is yet to know this. Hence we dispatched a mission with our letter particularly expressing our wishes. Enter into friendly relations with each other from now on. We think all countries belong to one family. How are we in the right, unless we comprehend this? Nobody would wish to resort to arms..

Baronesses' Hunting Party

The pleasure of the hunt is one known to all of noble bearing. Join her Excellency for a mounted* hawking party in the morning of Saturday 29 November followed by a huntsman's picnic and an 'en pied' bow hunt in the afternoon.

*Limited numbers, conditions apply.

Mounted 'hawking' party

Horses were an everyday part of medieval life and nobles in particular enjoyed the hunt as one of their principle leisure activities. However riding is something that few modern people are familiar with. The goal of this event is to give us a taste of this popular activity through a one hour guided horse trek.

There are places for 8-10 riders and the ride is suitable for complete novices. The horse trek will be conducted by Rubicon Valley Horse Treks, costs $55 (to be paid direct to them on arrival) and all their terms and conditions apply – please see their website for details <http://www.rubiconvalley.co.nz/horsetrek.htm>.

To book, please go to the online form at <http://bit.ly/1vyBF2E>. We will need details of your age and weight - the maximum weight is 120kg, if you weigh more than this we're sorry but the horses cannot take you. As there are only 8-10 spots bookings will be taken on a first in, first booked basis, however if there are later cancellations I will work back down the list.

You can ride if

- You are over 12 years of age;
- You weigh less than 120 kg.

What to wear

This is a garbed event – guidelines on appropriate garb for riders will be provided.

Picnic and 'en pied' bow hunt

We will complete the day with an outdoors lunch and archery at various hunt-themed targets, on a privately owned site adjacent to Kowai Bush, a beautiful remnant of native bush situated in the foothills of our Southern Alps. There are several lovely short walks through the bush.

Nota Bene

'en pied' is 'on foot'.

Illustrations notwithstanding please leave the hounds at home.

The picnic site is discreetly damp. Please don't drink and shoot, bush-walk or drive home.

When: Saturday 9 November, riders to meet at 11:00, picnic at 1:00. Site closes at 5:00pm

Where: Riding – Rubicon Riding Centre, 534 Rubicon Rd, Kowai Bush.

Take the West Coast road (SH 73) to the village of Springfield and turn right into Pocock Road. After a few minutes turn left into Kowai Road. Wind gently for a few minutes until you reach Rubicon Road. Turn right. We are just a few minutes down Rubicon Road on Rubicon Farm.

Picnic & Archery - 28 Midland Road, Kowai Bush.

Take the West Coast road (SH 73) to the village of Springfield and turn right into Pocock Road. After a few minutes turn left into Kowai Road. Wind gently for a few minutes until you reach Midland Road. Turn right – enter the first paddock on the left (will have SCA signs on gate) and follow the 'path' across the paddock, through the gate, over the railway line and other gate, turn left over the little bridge and keep following the path... you are there. Please shut the gates.

Please note: you will pass over the railway lines several times – most of these crossings are not controlled so please exercise caution.

Transport

I realise that this is a fair distance from Christchurch. Please consider offering others a lift out if you have room. If there are a number of people requiring transport we can investigate shuttles so please contact the steward (below).

Costs

Riders - $55 to be paid direct to Rubicon.

Site – $4 per person over 12 (+ $2 event membership fee from non-members 18 or over), free for under 12s.

Catered Picnic (optional) - $7 per person over 12 (half for kids).

You are welcome to bring your own picnic. Please note there are no cooking facilities.

Bookings

Please book online at <http://bit.ly/1vyBF2E> for the riding by Sunday 16th November (last day of Golden Flight).

Please book for the catered picnic by emailing or phoning Baroness Eleanora by the evening of Friday 21st November.

Please direct all event enquiries to Baroness Eleanora van den Bogaerde (Simone Hindin) hindins@gmail.com, 03 3181561 (evenings only).

Fimbulwinter 2014

A fabulous turn out of both people and weather was a great start to Fimbulwinter. The Gods smiled favourably on us with the wonderful weather continuing throughout the whole event. Many thanks to all of the soothsayers and those who prayed and performed rituals to ensure this result.

Commencing on the Friday afternoon saw arrival ranging from site open through to after 10pm! This was of no concern to most however as much meeting of each other, gossip, catching up, dancing, music and crafts was still occurring well into the night.

The live period music played by Lord Lowrens and Lady Melisande, who kindly bought their own period instruments, was greatly appreciated by all and added much atmosphere to the hall throughout the entire event. The dancers enjoyed the instruction provided by Lord Richard and once again, the live music.

There was a brisk start to the Saturday morning with have-a-go archery and an archery tournament which left several with chilly fingers and toes that were brought in to the fire to defrost. It was wonderful to see so many of both the Wildmoor and Southron Gaard contingent down on the field to have a go and many thanks to The Honourable Lord Richard for his great advice and instruction provided to those who began their journey into the world of archery as well as his marshalling the line along with Leonhart.

Congratulations also to The Honourable Lord Richard d'Allier who won the title of Wildmoor Archery Champion in the tournament. Huzzah!

The heavy fighters had plenty of practice as they found every otherwise 'spare' (and not so spare) moment to armour up and kill each other whilst learning new skills. Congratulations to the official authorisation of the three current heavy fighters of Wildmoor, Lady Mýrún Johansdottir, Elias Mailer, and Leonhart Hunt.

The Saturday afternoon warmed up and drew many outside to watch the heavy tournament that was held. Many thanks to the marshal, Lady Eleanora and marshal-in-training Leonhart; and the herald, Mielikko.

Baron Oswyn, Sir Phillipe, Lord Richard, Lord Raffe, and Lady Mýrún competed for the title of Wildmoor Heavy Champion. After multiple rounds and a wonderful display of fighting technique by all participants; the title finally went to Lord Raffe de Massard. Huzzah!

The Arts and Sciences were far from ignored throughout the weekend with many taking part in illumination thanks to Lady Edith, glass painting thanks to Baroness Angus, candle dipping, rune readings thanks to Verun Grimmarsdottir, also games including backgammon, nine mens morris, dice and chess.

Examples of illumination progress – courtesy of Lady Melisande and Lord Lowrens

An adventurous but patient group of Lord Lowrens, Lady Ginevra, and Lady Melisande created costuming pins on the spur of the moment with the locally acquired materials of wire, solder, a metal spoon, and a candle.

An introduction to period footwear and its construction thanks to Lady Eleanora was hugely beneficial and got many interested in a new pursuit the joy of the advancement dream.

Late Saturday afternoon and early evening had a chess tournament partaken in by Sir Callum, Sir Philippe, Marcus, Mielikko, Sean, and Verun. Many congratulations on the tactical success of the Championship going to Mielikko. Huzzah!

Baron Oswyn Carolus and Baroness Isabel Maria del Aguila held Court with much acknowledgment of the efforts and successes of the populace. The appointment of Benceline of Wildmoor as a Lady-in-Waiting to Baroness Isabel Maria is deserving of many congratulations and a great honour to her and to the group of Wildmoor as a whole. Huzzah! The champions of Wildmoor, The Honourable Lord Richard in archery, Lord Raffe in heavy, and Mielikko in chess, were presented with medals for their successes.

Congratulations of the appointments of Elias as squire to Sir Callum and Leonhart as squire to Sir Philippe and acknowledgement of authorisation by Lady Mýrún, Elias, and Leonhart.

Lady Mýrún was awarded a pearl for her stewarding of Midwinter Camp, as was Lady Gheleyn for her stewarding of Fimbulwinter. For success in his appointment as Baronial Cheese maker Leonhart was awarded with points for his beautiful garb where not only was there viewing but occasionally too much viewing.

Nourishment was far from scarce with multiple wonderful chefs stepping up to provide delicious and filling meals throughout the event. Lady Mýrún, Lady Elizabetta and Lord Angus, and Elias should not be overlooked, as well as the many who assisted in the kitchen as required; however Leonhart's provision of breads, period cheese, four different stews including a 'unique' period recipe of chicken and berry fruit stew, finished by apple normanby and honey cakes as part of the Saturday night tavern revel was a stand out. The large quantities of alcohol including beers, ciders, meads, and hard lemonade provided by the brewers of Wildmoor assisted in both the enjoyment of food and company as the tavern revel quickly took on a life of its own with naughty songs heartily belted out, dice and other games starting up, loud gossip, and individuals who were less than steady on their feet all contributing to the atmosphere and entertainment. Macbrief, a play written by Mielikko, was performed by energetic actors with standout performances including an accidental Irish accent invasion portrayed by Lord Richard.

Baron Oswyn and Sir Philippe awaiting combat

Baroness Isabel Maria and her ladies under the shade of the pavilion

The effects of the tavern revel were still being felt on the Sunday morning with a still drunk individual spinning her dress and pigtails, and many others who were worse-for-wear following the excitement of the previous night. There was still plenty of leftover alcohol available for a 'hair-of-the-dog' but not one took up the offer, however the pancakes for breakfast were demolished.

A final court held by the Baron and Baroness was a wonderful close to a pleasurable and dynamic packed weekend that was a superb celebration of Fimbulwinter.

Many thanks to all of those who made the weekend possible including those who took the time to travel, not only locally but also from up in Southron Gaard, everyone who partook in set-up and a very efficient breakdown, the hall decorations of both personal and Southron Gaard heraldry as well as generic banners, transport of a huge selection of gear to help create the dream, Rhys and Ormgeirr for their assistance, running of errands, and contribution to the weekend, and both apologies and thanks to those whom I have missed.

Basics of Japanese Heraldry

By: Mýrún Jóhansdóttir

There are considerable differences between heraldry in Japan and Europe. That found in Japan is based around the use of the mon ('crest'), and was never regulated as it was in Europe. Most mon were by definition assumed arms, i.e. they were chosen by the bearers. The only designs that were considered restricted at certain points of time were the paulownia and the chrysanthemum (for the imperial Chrysanthemum throne).

Mon also play an important part in the graphic arts of Japan, and were frequently used as motifs on fabric, and many that later came to be used as mon started out this way as families began to use that motif to the near exclusion of any others. This resulted in that motif becoming associated with that family through usage, not registration.

Mon first started to be used in earnest as identifying markers around the time of the Mongol invasions (as can be seen on scrolls from the time), but still weren't catalogued until around 1510-1520, by the Tokugawa bakufu. However, by the Edo period (which starts around the end of the SCA period) the use of crests had devolved to little more than fashion statements, and were no longer used for identification.

Types of Mon

There are six commonly recognised types of mon:

- Plants
- Animals
- Natural Phenomena (e.g. wave)
- Man-made objects (e.g. fan)
- Abstract designs
- Ji (characters)

Plants were the most common type of mon, then man-made objects, and then insects. Martial motifs or those with auspicious meanings were common and popular.

Mon Design

- Mon are by default monochromatic, i.e. light on dark, or dark on light.
- Not all mon are enclosed in a circle. Sometimes a design is doubled, or trebled, or put in an enclosure that is narrow, fat, or some abstract design
- Plant mon are by default round and smooth.
- Charges, especially plants, are seen from the back, e.g. a blossom shows the emerging stem.
- Charges may be silhouetted against another, and are called kage, or shadow charges.

Usage of Mon

Mon can go on pretty much everything. It can be used basically like a badge to identify your gear, camp and affiliations.

e.g.

- Stencilled on clothing
- Painted on chests
- On banners
- On canvas camp walls (called jinmaku)
- Cast in metal and used as decoration on your armour (or painted on it)
- Painted on tents
- On shields

Types of Banners

Japan uses many different types of banners and flags, though few of these are similar to those used in Europe. The most common Japanese banner was (and this is still common) the nobori. This type of banner is connected at the hoist and chief to the pole, and has a cross-arm. It may be longer and thinner or squarer, however the longest side is always vertical. This style of banner is illustrated in the title slide for this section.

Sashimono are small banners borne on the back by those needing to be identified quickly in battle. Similar to and smaller than these were the sode-jirushi, a small rectangular ribbon, often with a mon on it that can be tied to the shoulder of your armour (great to use as a favour), or koshi sashi, which were basically little labels with the mon tied to a stick and shoved into the back of the hakama.

Another, older style of banner has a long narrow strip of cloth hanging from a crossbar, said crossbar could be either rigidly attached to the pole or hung free from it by cords at either end and tied to the pole.

Similar to that are the windsock style, such as the 'carp' flags

Finally, there was some use of standards used in a way that a European of the period could understand, to represent the man/general/person and that they were present, and which were not used when they were not present. These didn't have to be flags, some that were used were golden fans, gourds, hats, umbrellas on poles etc. These were called uma-jirushi, 'horse-signs').

Conclusion

I hope that you've enjoyed this brief introduction to Japanese heraldry, and it helps you to feel inspired for Golden Flight this year.

QUARTERMASTER (Raffe): Correspondence with seneschal about storage at CF site and chargeable rates for various sized items. 30% of container (approx) is Baronial and Mong gear. 25% free, rest is private gear. Suggested rates around $5/yr for a small bag/chest and $10/yr for a large bag/chest. Collected Bell and delivered to Mistress Katherine for use in new structure for CF. Correspondence with Wild moor stewards about equipment for Fimblewinter. Correspondence with their Excellency's about items they would like transported to Fimblewinter. Set up display at antique's armour faire, attended and dismantled. Gave interview for promotional story to The Chch Press.

CONSTABLE (Bjorn): No report.

MARSHALL (Elena): Have attended practice at Redwood scout hall over last 2 weeks. 1 newcomer seems very keen to try things out.

Archery loaner gear picked up. New Captain still being sought.

CAPTAIN OF ARCHERS (Darayavaush): Not a lot of practices due to weather. Had a look at new site. Concerns with drainage, parking, size of field and possibility of sports next door – not ideal. Correspondence with Wildmoor re targets and Fimblewinter. Some gear still to be rounded up and handed over (crossbow, metal detector).

CAPTAIN OF RAPIER (Elena): See Marshal Report

CHIRURGEON (Kotek): No report received.

EVENT REPORTS:

Past Events:

Collegium: Final reports submitted. Event made profit of $226.28 due to stronger than expected numbers attending. Class notes to be posted on Collegium webpage – need to discuss with Beth. WEA site booking policy somewhat odd. Suggest future stewards get cast iron confirmation as they appear to view bookings as unconfirmed until their term schedule is finalised which may not be until very close to an event.

Upcoming Events:

Fimbulwinter (Gheleyn): Bookings good. Should break even.

Golden Flight (Mýrún) : No report.

Possible Tourney (Ginevra): No further report.

Baroness's Hunting Party: Proposed by Eleanora. Horse trek, picnic and archery. Horse trek would be in the morning, 8-10 people only. Run by Rubicon horse treks – individuals pay for that privately. Cons – will be out of town. Pros – picnic will be almost free ($6 ish). Discussed dates. Settled on 29th November (3 month rule applies). Agreed in principle – can begin advertising.

Canterbury Faire (Richard): Getting things prepped for taking bookings. Project management tool set up using Teamwork.com. Free site provides useful project management features. Should enable a useful handover of a management template to next year's steward. Most of the key roles filled. Bookings – me, Gate and Publications – Eleanora, Meal Plan – Myrun, Feast – Antonia, Billets and Bunkrooms – Angus, War – Vitale, Rapier – James, Archery – Daid, Boffer – Callum, Lists – Melisande, Children's Activities – Csperka, Marshal in Charge – Elena, Chatelaine – Philippe, A and S – Agnes, Constable, Equipment setup, Container Unload/Load – Raffe, Heraldry – Lucia, Transport/Shuttle Coordinator and Souvenirs – Taddea. Still looking for Market coordinator, Site tokens organiser, Ball organiser.

First advertising gone out regarding the date. Booking form largely set up (thanks Bartholemew). Final testing to be done then will advertise bookings opening within the next week. Schedule underway – will largely follow previous formats. Theme set – The Battle of Agincourt (1415) and the events leading up to it.

Volunteering (previously known as chores) will be split into meal plan and non-meal plan. One meal plan task will be compulsory for anyone on the meal plan. Others may assist with the meal plan if they want or may pick up something else. Once we have the task list finalised, people that pay early will be allowed to pick a task.

Site heraldry will be done 3 times per day. 8:30am, lunch and evening.

Payment by foreign cheque will not be accepted. Didn't seem to be a problem last year.

B and B will be contacting all other Lochac B and Bs personally to extend the invitation. Also hope to do the same to Caidan Baronies and Royalty.

Have contacted site with a few questions re site. Haven't raised concerns about price increases yet. Feedback from previous stewards has been that it's probably fair but we still need to flag up that the increases are going to hurt if they continue.

GENERAL BUSINESS:

Request for purchasing rice cookers (Myrun). Discussed likely usefulness and alternate options, including borrowing them. Decided not to proceed with this.

Baronial Heraldic Challenge. Happening again.

Officer Appointment Process. Problems with Captain of Archers appointment raised concerns about fairness of the process. Agreed a wording change to the announcement regarding Kingdom's selection was required. Richard to follow this up with Kingdom. Need a balance between not "voting" (where there are multiple applicants) and encouraging appropriate commentary. Questions about commentary before the choice is made. Seneschal to write article for FtT reminding people of the process.

MEETING CLOSED: 8:55pm

These are provisional minutes of the most recent council meeting. These minutes have been edited for space and have not been accepted as a true and accurate record of the meeting. Send any corrections to the Baronial Seneschal.

Southron Gaard Council Meeting

Wednesday 13th August 2014

PRESENT: Richard (Richard), Elena (Niamh), Agnes (Robyn), Isabel Maria (Miriam), Philippe (Peter), Oswyn (Carl), Godric (Daniel), Cecily (Cat), Darayavaush (Damon), Eva (Sarah), James (James), Madeleine (Laura), Callum (Bob), Raffie (Shaun), Elias (Adam), Mýrún (Sandra), Gheleyn (Anna)

APOLOGIES: Mahasti (Agate), Ginevra (Beth), Kotek (Sam).

MEETING OPENED: 7:30pm

PREVIOUS MINUTES: Accepted, no objections.

OFFICER REPORTS:

B&B (Oswyn and Isabel Maria): Correspondence with seneschal re Wildmoor officers, medallions and Hororata Games. Chronicler re FtT. Quartermaster re transport for Fimbulwinter (thrones and gear). Deputy Herald re group heraldry usage. Fimbulwinter steward re court planning and arrangements. A&S officer re A&S topics and scheduling. Attended Fimbulwinter and Sunday practices. Appointed a Baronial cheese-maker (Leonhart) and a Lady in Waiting (Bencelina). Spent $74.96 on fabric and paint for Lochac gonfalon. Will submit receipts for reimbursement later. Found good weight of brocade and paint in appropriate colours. Work to be schedule into A&S to allow wider participation in project. Working on T-shirt design for CF.

SENECHAL (Richard): Attended and assisted at Fimbulwinter. Received quarterly reports after very little chasing (thanks all). Sent quarterly report to Kingdom. Follow-up discussions with KS on various points. Discussion on Seneschal's list about officer appointments. Kingdom reviewing and will be updating wording as a result. Wrote article for FtT. Follow-up with Kingdom Exchequer re reeve. We have some breathing room but do need to find a new one soon. Have had one expression of interest so far but no actual application. Spoke to one newcomer. They have been to 2 practices so far. Updated Lochac Historian to advise that St Kessog and Castleburn no longer exist.

Wildmoor – emails with Catalina re heraldry on FB group (concern they shouldn't display any since they are not official) and passed on Kingdom's general email on the topic of not saying you're a branch if you're not official yet. Received latest council minutes and applications for new officers. Various discussions re officer appointments.

Suggested idea of a stewards' mailing list to Kingdom. Agreement this would be a good idea.

Email from Melisande. Need to find new home for library as they are moving out of town. Beth has offered to house it. Agreed. Email from Leonhart re enamelling and engraving award tokens. Have passed this on to B&B as well. $190 setup and then <$10 each thereafter.

REEVE (Mahasti): Balances:00 account: $29,833.81, 01 account: $3,017.30. Money in for Golden Flight, Canterbury Faire, Fimbulwinter. Money out for Fimbulwinter, and storage.

HERALD (Lucia): No report. Discussion re deputy herald as this is listed as vacant on the website but Mýrún is doing this. Report from Mýrún – name and device put through. Heralded at Fimbulwinter. Running basic class re heraldry on Friday.

ARTS AND SCIENCES (Agnes): A&S classes have been getting underway and planning for Faire is happening. Very slow uptake on the classes so far.

We have had: dance (with no attendees) Bob making chests (which several people attended and made ALL the chests for the people that didn't, myself included) Glass Painting and other people running other activities at Fimbulwinter and a marketable crafts session. Tent decoration next week, and dance, music and banner making planned for the future.

Correspondence with Isabel Maria about dancing and banners, with Emma about dancing, with Rohesia and Richard regarding A&S display at Faire, with assorted members of the populace about A&S activities at Faire, with Gheleyn about the glass painting.

CHRONICLER (Eva): FtT out – a bit smaller than previous months but expecting more next month.

WEBWRIGHT (Ginevra): Set up, with William (David) Wildmoor mailing list, with Elias (Adam) as co-moderator. Moderated SG Mailing lists. Made adjustments to pages for events, as requested by stewards. Advised A&S officer of their access/ passwords for the A&S calendar.

CHATELAINE (Philippe): Attended Fimbulwinter – talked to newcomers and had a blast. Spoke you Youth Coordinator – dead end. Talk about going to schools for educational demos. Need to add info to our website on this. Received application for deputy for Wildmoor (Verun).

QUARTERMASTER (Raffe): Went to Fimbulwinter. Need to get tablecloths dry-cleaned. Some interested parties for loaner armour. Have a bow that needs bolts replaced then to go to Ellen for a new string. Discussed prices for storage space. Things in container not claimed will be advertised to be picked up or sell Faire.

CONSTABLE (Bjorn): Term is up but yet to receive any applications for successor. Continuing to advertise in FtT. Everything ready to hand over.

MARSHALL (Elena): Have attended Sunday practices the last few weeks. Good turnout at Redwood hall. Several newcomers present trying their hand. Rapier: 1 newcomer seems very keen to try things out. Archery: Loaner gear retrieved. New Captain still being sought.

CAPTAIN OF ARCHERS (Currently Vacant): Need Captain of Archers. See above for report.

CAPTAIN OF RAPIER (Elena): See above for report.

CHIRURGEON (Kotek): No report.

WILDMOOR: Received copy of minutes of their last council meeting.

EVENT REPORTS:

Past Events:

Fimbulwinter: (Gheleyn) Report received. Food was very good. Final report pending.

Upcoming Events:

Golden Flight: (Mýrún) progress hampered on preparations recently but full steam ahead from now on. Currently all meals have cooks assigned to them, I have to follow up on offers of cooking equipment, no one has responded to requests for volunteers/assistance (to be followed up with more dedicated individual shoulder tapping) and there are currently somewhere between 14 and 16 people booked, depending on whether peoples friends come.

Quartermaster needs advance notice of anything required for GF as he will be unavailable for the event itself so will need to organise transport in advance.

Baronesses' Hunting Party: (Eleanora) We have confirmed booking for the riding and the picnic/archery site for Saturday November 29. I am going out to check the picnic site this weekend with the owners. I have crunched the numbers for the budget so that it should not be possible to lose money because everything is based on a per person cost - there are no fixed costs. I have allowed the following: $2 per person (over 12) site donation. $1 per adult (over 18) Kingdom levy. I'm not really expecting any kids but if we do have some they're free. I did a menu and budget and would like to charge $7 for the picnic - if people think that that's a bit much they're welcome to BYO. In fact I'm happy for everyone to BYO. But $7 should do us a nice lunch (should be berries by end of Nov at this rate). I have not mentioned the riding fees in the budget as that's a private deal between the individual and the horse trek company. I will want a bit of baronial gear and will pick much of it up after Golden Flight.

I'll also be looking for every archery target I can get my hands on and will handle all pickups and deliveries - it will all be available for practice the next day.

Canterbury Faire: (Richard) Discussions with various people re site tokens. Some prototypes underway. Received braid samples from Loyse. Booked marquees (3) although just waiting on price confirmation. Should not be much different to last year. Kotek + household organising an Olympic games. Kazimira and co organising heraldry consulting. Emma and Ordo Cygni running the ball. Various other people taking on other jobs.

Response from site on some questions. We can define a day for any 24 hours we like – may simplify bookings in the future but no changes this year. Clarified liability in the case of disaster (we would have to pay the minimum daily charge). Confirmed under 5s are free. We don't get to keep the haybales.

36 adults and 9 children/infants booked so far. Built booking database – will be extending that as well. Happy to make available to any stewards. Requires MS Access though. Ad sent to FtT and Pegasus (just blew advertising budget sorry). Also on Kingdom Calendar. Facebook event up. 66 people so far indicated they are going. B and B contacting other B&Bs directly to invite them and their populace.

Schedule largely sorted. Contacted KS and KEM re officer meetings. Have booked a seneschal meeting time.

Canterbury Faire/Coronation (2016): (Isabel Maria) Looking at running from Thursday to the next Sunday (11 days) in order to ensure a full weekend available for Royal celebrations. Italian theme. Proposed budget submitted. Need to check site for date and budget. Need to seek extension from Kingdom for bid to allow final review at next council. Check to see if they will allow separate of Coronation and the main Canterbury Faire. Discussed maximum capacity of site and required scaling of equipment, kitchens etc.

Agreement in principle, noting that accepting a bid for CF this far in advance is unusual. Richard and Isabel Maria to work on budget.

Baronial Anniversary: Seeking bids now.

GENERAL BUSINESS:

List Field: (James) red one with footed posts and ropes needs altering. James provided drawing and to organise.

Wildmoor: Mailing List: has been set up. 12 people subscribed. Officer applications have been received for marshal, chatelaine and reeve. Applications for other offices are welcome.
